

Wonder Is Born of Wonder

Mercy is born of mercy; truth is born of truth; wonder is born of wonder; love is born of love.

To be born, is to be created, to bring about that which does not exist. So if God is: mercy, truth, wonder and love...how can mercy, truth, wonder and love be brought into existence, if they already exist in God?

“We proclaim the resurrection of Christ when his light illuminates the dark moments of our existence, and we are able share it with others; when we know when to smile with those who smile, and weep with those who weep; when we accompany those who are sad and at risk of losing hope; when we recount our experience of Faith to those who are searching for meaning and happiness,” Pope Francis

God is love, mercy, wonder and truth that lives within us and that longs to be lived for all to experience. When you live in God and allow God to live in you, then God is able to be born into your life, into the world, into every situation and interaction that you encounter. What meaning would your life hold if you actively lived in and with God? How much more joy and peace about this world would you gain if only God were more a part of your life?

“Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.” Matthew 5:7

The vast wonder of God in all of its awesome might, lies within your soul and it awaits the opportunity to be born into your life. Wonder does not just happen, it is born through the moment of your life. The sheer wonder of all creation, of God's infinite love, mercy and truth, are held, grown and given life in God's greatest creation...You! If this world is lacking in love, forgiveness, peace and truth, then it is because we fail to allow it to be born into our lives. It is not God who fails the world, it is the world that fails to enact the wonder that we all hold within us.

“Let our lives be conquered and transformed by the Resurrection,” Pope Francis

“...the victory that conquers the world is our faith.” 1 John 5:4

O loving Savior, who is divinely merciful, heal me in all my wounds and the wounds that I inflict on others. Teach me to live in the ways of your mercy and to forgive the pain that I have suffered at the hands of my sisters and brothers. Show me how to live in love and to make my life a life of love and peace. Reveal to me the truth that exists within my soul, so that I may live in the ways of truth and speak only that of truth. May this life that I have be lived in the brilliant and radiant light of the Resurrection, now and always. AMEN
