

“The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe.” John 6: 63-64

Where does our faith exist? Within the eternal moment of now? Where all will know and experience the richness of your faith? Is our faith hidden, as if it were something to be ashamed of? Is our faith allowed to flood our lives, filling them to overflowing?

“It is not length of life, but depth of life.” Ralph Waldo Emerson

The depth of profound richness that exists within a soul, can never be grasped in its infiniteness. The riches of ones soul are so vast and far beyond our ability to comprehend, that it bewilders the mind. And yet, it is this richness that God seeks to open to us, it is there for us to explore, ponder and exercise. There are no limits to faith, there is no end to it's depth. Contained within us, is a greater wonder, ability and strength then that of all creation. God spared nothing when creating us; we are His greatest creation, formed “in his image; in the image of God he created them...” [Genesis 1:27].

“Does this shock you?” John 6:61

To be aware of your faith and to exist within your faith, is live within it's fullness and to be driven insane by the beauty of God at work in your soul. Are you shocked by the amazing beauty of your soul and by the power and strength of your faith? To exist within your faith, is to be transported into the fullness of life, to a reality that is unshakable by anything of this world. Our faith is a prayer, and when we live within our faith, our lives become the most powerful form of prayer.

“Faith is born of an encounter with the living God who calls us and reveals his love, a love which precedes us and upon which we can lean for security and for building our lives. Transformed by this love, we gain fresh vision, new eyes to see; we realize that it contains a great promise of fulfilment, and that a vision of the future opens up before us.” Lumen Fidel 4

My Child,

How I long for you to know the vast expanse and richness of our soul. To experience the beauty and wonder that exists within. My child, if only you knew the love of which you are capable. You have the power to move more than mountains and dry up the sea; you have the power to change lives, invoke peace were hatred reigns, dispel darkness with the warmth of your smile and love in a way that moves souls to tears of beauty. My child, walk with me so that together we might inspire the hearts of all people to live in the beauty of their souls. United together as one, my child, we will share with the world the love that it is thirsting for. Together in love, we will shock the world.
