

Give To Us Your Peace

The greatest gift that this world has ever known, or will ever know is found in a cradle tiny and innocent. He is our salvation, our hope and our light. What joy His sweet smile brings to our hearts. His eyes radiate love and compassion that brings us to our knees, His peaceful presence causes the whole world to melt away. He is the Christ, the Son of God. This little child has come to save us from death and free us from the chains of sin. His mother places this precious bundle in your arms and as He snuggles in Your arms you feel your heart is set on fire and tears flow without control. This is Christmas, not a day on the calendar or the gifts under the tree, but the little baby who dwells within your heart, waiting for you to place Him in the arms of another. This is Christmas, the Spirit of life given from heart to heart. This is where peace is born and love enters the world.

“Upon you the LORD will dawn, and over you his glory will be seen.” Isaiah 60:2

“Then you shall be radiant at what you see..” Isaiah 60: 5

Father, God, Creator...

Give to us Your peace

The Peace of Christ, Immanuel.

That we may know that You walk with us; that You breathe, move and live within our hearts.

Grant to us peace that we may see Your face in the eyes of humanity.

Let Your peace flood our souls, igniting our desire for You

To be with You and to have You fully present within us always.

Let Your love invade the deepest recesses of our lives and

May Your mercy purge our indifference and leave us clean and free to love as You love.

Deepen our perception of what we see, what we think and what we claim to know, to that of what You've created and long to be. Let us work not for ourselves, but for peace that all of humanity may love and know that they are loved.

Almighty God,

May Your love be known in the calm of my existence, may that Your peace permeate my callous soul and rid my life of worldly desire. May that through the expression of my life, Your peace may penetrate each and every heart that I encounter. May Your peace grow to absolute consumption of each and every facet of my being and may it be known by all that You live within all as You are alive in me. Grant that peace may reign victorious in the hearts of all humanity and Grant O Lord, that it may prosper in all its glorious radiance now and always.

AMEN
