

Conversing With God - What Am I To Do?

I: Father, what am I to do with this life that You have given me?

What am I to do with gifts that You have placed within me?

What am I to do, when the entire world rejects Your dreams for peace and true prosperity?

What am I to say to the people of the world?

Father, what am I to do when people refuse to listen?

What am I to do if I fail?

What am I to do when everything goes wrong and there's no way out?

What am I to do when it feels as though I am not enough?

God: My child, my child...

Do not fear what you are to do, or what you are to say.

Fear belongs to those who refuse my hand, who squander life in selfish pride.

You are not alone in wondering: What am I to do?

Parents ask this question about their children.

Children ask this question about their future.

I ask this question about my children too.

All people hold the power of free will, how am I to love them, when they refuse the love I offer?

What am I to do about suffering, when people deny my love to those who are in need?

What am I to do but love you and all my children, no matter what they choose to do with their free will?

So when you ask me, "What am I to do?" know that I am always beside you helping you to do what you know needs to be done.
