

Conversing With God - How Can I Go On?

I: Father, how can I go on when all hope is lost?

How can I go on when it feels as though all strength is gone?

How can I go on when it seems that You are far away?

How can I go on when the best intentions disappear into the void of indifference?

How can I go on when all the world remains obstinate to the beauty of You?

How can I go on without a clear vision of what You ask of me?

How can I go on without the energy to carry on?

How can I go on when every turn is met with obstacles making this journey virtually impossible?

How can I go on when every heart that I meet is closed and devoid of the desire for truth?

O Lord, how can I go on?

God: My beloved child, do not fear how you will go on when it seems that all is hopeless...

Remember that I'm always by your side and I will never leave or abandon you...

Rest in the comfort of My promise to be always with you, wherever you are in love...

How can you go on when you feel as though you've met your match...you carry on with the strength and courage that I have built into your soul..

When you are met with indifference and impassible situations, know that anything and everything is possible with My love...

You are the lighthouse of My love in this world. As long as you continue to shine, there will never cease to be light in the darkness of this world.

When you find yourself asking "How Can I Go On" look deep within yourself and there you will find your answer...
