

God So Among Us - Inspiring

What is it about God, that so inspires man? The almighty...the infinite...the unseen...the unknown...or is it the belief without the gaze of eyes, which rests solely in the gaze of one's soul...

“O Infinite One beyond all understanding, the more I know You the less I comprehend You; but because I cannot comprehend You, I better comprehend Your greatness.” St. Faustina [Divine Mercy In My Soul #278]

To realize God among us is the most incredible achievement that anyone can accomplish. God is everywhere and amidst everything, in the most joyous of times, in the darkest of moments. God is present in the obscure realities of life.

The inspiration of God within one's soul, is so profound, and yet almost never heard. Most hearts are cold and closed to the realities that are longingly awaiting to delight and inspire, to excite and to captivate. God is awaiting within; do we dare to allow Him to enter into the most finite facets of our lives? To challenge us to grow and provoke the untapped abilities of our souls into missionary action.

“I desire that you live according to My will in the most secret depths of your soul.” [Divine Mercy In My Soul #443]

To experience God in profound and inexpressible ways seduces every facet of the soul. It doesn't take a degree in Theology or a special type person that has been set aside by God. All that it takes is an open and enduring heart. The existence of God, of an all powerful creator, not just dwells, but dwells richly within the hearts of every soul, one could say that it is the very fabric of our souls. God cannot create from nothing...He creates from Himself... From His Being, from His Goodness, in His image and because of His love.

“When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart...” Jeremiah 29:13

Creator of all creation, speak words of inspiration into the depths of my soul.
Invoke a sense of wonder for what lies deep within;
the undying majesty of Your grace.

In all that surrounds us and abounds within us.
It is not the wonder of just You that enralls us but,
the glory of You that comes from within us...

Help me to be always present to the reality of You that resides within, Who justifies and defines my existence, through the unfathomable being of You

AMEN
