

"I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep." John 10:11

Jesus our shepherd, not only in memory, 2,000 years ago; but today and everyday. He walks with His flock, He remains with His flock, because He is part of His flock. A shepherd is not only one who guides and feeds His flock, but also one who teaches and learns from His flock. Jesus knows what we need and when we need it. He knows how to respond to each of us, in every moment of everyday.

It is the supreme art of the teacher to awaken joy in creative expression and knowledge. Albert Einstein

Jesus comes to us everyday, to seek us out and to meet us where we are in our lives. He longs to bring us all to His fold, so that we may know true peace and happiness.

"...he has a certain loving weakness for those who are furthest away, who are lost."
Pope Francis

"He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep."

Isaiah 40:11

How is Jesus our shepherd? Where can we find Him? In a Bishop, Priest; yes. But also in each other. For by our baptisms we were anointed; Priest, Prophet and King! We are shepherds of the flock, we are called to watch over one another and to care for each other. Jesus works through us, is a shepherd through you!

Jesus,

You are the King of Kings, the Prince of peace and shepherd to all.

Grant that I may experience the presence of Your grace, as we walk together, in this journey of trials, hardship and joy.

Help me to realize that I share in Your glory, when I become truly Christian to others.

May I know in my heart, that You are King of all, and when I surrender all to You, You surrender all love unto me.

Amen

"...King of kings and Lord of lords." Rev. 19:16
