

The Journey

Have you ever heard it said; that life is a journey...and that every journey begins with a single step?

Life is a journey, that takes us to places in our souls that we never thought possible. It's not something that science can explain, or that can be measured by its monetary value. The experience of life...is the experience of a lifetime!

“Open up your heart and listen to what God is saying to you. Allow your life to be written by God.” Pope Francis

The journey of a soul, begins with the light of God's love, and as He breathed us into existence, He gave us all that we would need to journey through this life.

God knows you, He knows your journey, where to started, where you've been and where you are headed. He knows what you need for the journey too. He thought of that when He created you. He gave you the gives and talents you need to journey to eternal life. He gave the exact amount of strength, the right amount of instinct and a heart that will guide you along the way.

“I will be with you” Exodus 3:12

The best part is that we are never alone in our journey...never! God is with us always, just as He has always been. The times of our lives that we are in need, it is God who comes to help us through and He comes through others. God will place the right people in your life, when you need them most, and it is God who works through them. And just as He works through others, He also works through you.

Jesus,

My companion and savior,

Help me to see that You walk beside me every step of the way.

That You are the one who leads me through the emptiness and pain.

You comfort me, when my heart is crying,

and You laugh with me, when my heart is singing.

May I know Your presence in those whom You have placed around me, and may my heart always be open to You.

With gentle touch of Your love upon my heart,

May in turn touch another heart with Your same love.

Amen
