

“For creation awaits with eager expectation
the revelation of the children of God.”

Romans 8:19

Have you ever noticed how a heart longs for love, just as the earth longs for rain, or the winter longs for spring? There is a desire in every heart to experience love from each other, as well as to allow love to be born in your own heart. The world is longing for: justice, peace, and truth. But this cannot become a reality unless there is sincerity of the heart.

“...they look but do not see and hear but do not listen or understand.”

Matthew 13:13

Without prayer hearts cannot be fruitful! We do not understand the things of this world, for we are always viewing the world through our limited human eyes and minds. What if we could see through God's eyes...Would the world look so bleak and full of injustice, corruption and greed? If we allow God to enable us to see with our hearts, we would see nothing but boundless opportunities for love to prevail.

“The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched - they must be felt with the heart.” Helen Keller

The seed which is sown upon fertile soil shall bear great fruit and shall give great love to all who eat of the fruit. So too can all experience the love born from fertile hearts; Hearts that are always open to the free movement of the Spirit, confined not to our narrow view, but engaged by the endless expanse of God's love for His creation. Hearts that dwell in surrender to the creator who seeks to cultivate and nourish hardened hearts, bringing fertile soil on which He can plant His seed of love.

“I am a little pencil in the hand of a writing God, who is sending a love letter to the world.” Mother Teresa

*My beloved child, I long to create in you a heart fruitful beyond all measure,
A heart that will guide you through the most challenging and darkest times in life,
A heart that is not afraid to love with abandonment,
Free to express the joys and sorrows of this life.
The road you travel will not be easy and your cross will not be easy to carry, but I have created a place in you where strength can grow and love can be known.,
A place where time has no domain,
Where love knows no limits and hope can be found,
Hope that leads to faith and faith that leads to light,
Light that penetrates and brings death to all darkness.
For you are my light to this world, you are where My love resides.
From your heart, My love is born.*
